- If no indication is given, the proxy will vote as (s)he thinks fit.
- Any alteration to the form of proxy must be signed, not initialled.
- Each shareholder is entitled to appoint one or more proxies who need not be shareholders of the company, to attend, speak and, on a poll, vote in place of that shareholder at the annual general meeting. This does not preclude the shareholder from attending and speaking at the general meeting.
- Relevant power of attorney or authorisation of representatives must be attached, unless recorded by the company, or waived by the chairperson of the meeting.
- The chairperson of the general meeting may reject or accept any completed proxy form other than in accordance with these instructions, provided (s)he is satisfied with the manner in which a member wishes to vote.
- Shareholders who have dematerialised their shares with a CSDP or stockbroker, other than own name registration, must arrange with the CSDP or stockbroker concerned to provide them with the necessary authorisation to attend the annual general meeting or the shareholders concerned must instruct them as to how they wish to vote in this regard. This must be done in terms of the agreement entered into between the shareholder and the CSDP or stockbroker concerned.
- A shareholder's instructions to the proxy must be indicated by the insertion of the relevant number of votes exercisable by that shareholder in the appropriate space provided. Failure to comply with the above will be deemed to authorise the proxy to vote or to abstain from voting at the general meeting as (s)he deems fit in respect of the shareholder's votes exercisable at the meeting. A shareholder or his/her proxy is not obliged to use all the votes exercisable by the shareholder or by his/her proxy, but the total of the votes cast and in respect of which abstention is recorded may not exceed the total of the votes exercisable by the shareholder or his/her proxy.
- Where there are joint holders of shares and if more than one of such joint holders is present or represented, then the person whose name appears first in the register in respect of such shares or his/her proxy, as the case may be, shall alone be entitled to vote in respect thereof.
- Registered certificated shareholders and dematerialised shareholders with own name registration who complete and lodge forms of proxy will nevertheless be entitled to attend and vote in person at the annual general meeting to the exclusion of their appointed proxy(ies) should such member wish to do so.
- Proxies will only be valid for the purpose of the annual general meeting if delivered to the company secretary at the company's registered address, Block 7, Sanwood Park, 379 Queens Crescent, Lynnwood, Pretoria to reach him by no later than 10h00 on Monday, 04 July 2005.
