

Jump Start - Cape Town

Join this free, one-day workshop

Ready to unleash your power and become an OutSystems expert?

Would you like to learn how to build enterprise-grade applications at super-fast speed? Datacentrix and OutSystems are hosting a Jump Start LIVE Workshop and we are inviting you!

You and your team will get hands-on experience on the latest OutSystems platform and be assisted by certified Solution Architects during the session. Seats are LIMITED, so register fast, and don't miss this event!

Why should you attend?

In this session you will learn how to rapidly develop and deploy enterprise-grade mobile and web applications.

You will also learn how to manage application lifecycles with one click, integrate apps with any external systems and... more!!

The LIVE session includes several demos, hands-on exercises, and lots of time for Q&A.

Don't miss out and Join Us!
