

Datacentrix selected to compete as finalist at Oliver Top Empowerment Awards

Datacentrix has qualified as an award finalist for the 17th Oliver Top Empowerment Awards in three categories, namely:

- Top Empowered Company: Business of the Year Award
- Top Empowered Company: ICT Award
- Top Empowered Company: Skills Development Award

This achievement places Datacentrix at the forefront of national empowerment and demonstrates Datacentrix' long-term commitment to socio-economic transformation.

- Finalists for the Business of the Year Award include: Barloworld Equipment, Coega Development Corporation, K.Carrim Builders, Multichoice South Africa, VNA Consulting, Stadium Management South Africa and Plus 94 Research.
- Finalists for the ICT Award include: Ricoh South Africa, Multichoice South Africa, Introstat, Karasani IT and Nkgwete IT Solutions.
- Finalists for the Skills Development Award include: African Marine Solutions Group, Barloworld Equipment, Elgin Brown & Hamer, EnviroServ Waste Management, Nestle South Africa, Spring Lights Gas, Multichoice South Africa, Moses Kotane Institute, Scan Display, EOH Holdings, Volkswagen South Africa, LFP Strategic Training Partners and Lemok Group.

The Oliver Top Empowerment Awards is endorsed at the highest levels of corporate and governmental South Africa, and has created a legacy of inspiration for the nation by showcasing outstanding leaders – organisations and individuals – who exemplify vision, innovation, leadership, and, most of all, action in the name of transformation.

May the best companies win!

“Only a handful of companies qualify as Top Empowerment finalists at these awards. We'll be competing against a small, select group of peers for the titles in Johannesburg, on 12 April 2018.”
Ahmed Mahomed
Datacentrix CEO